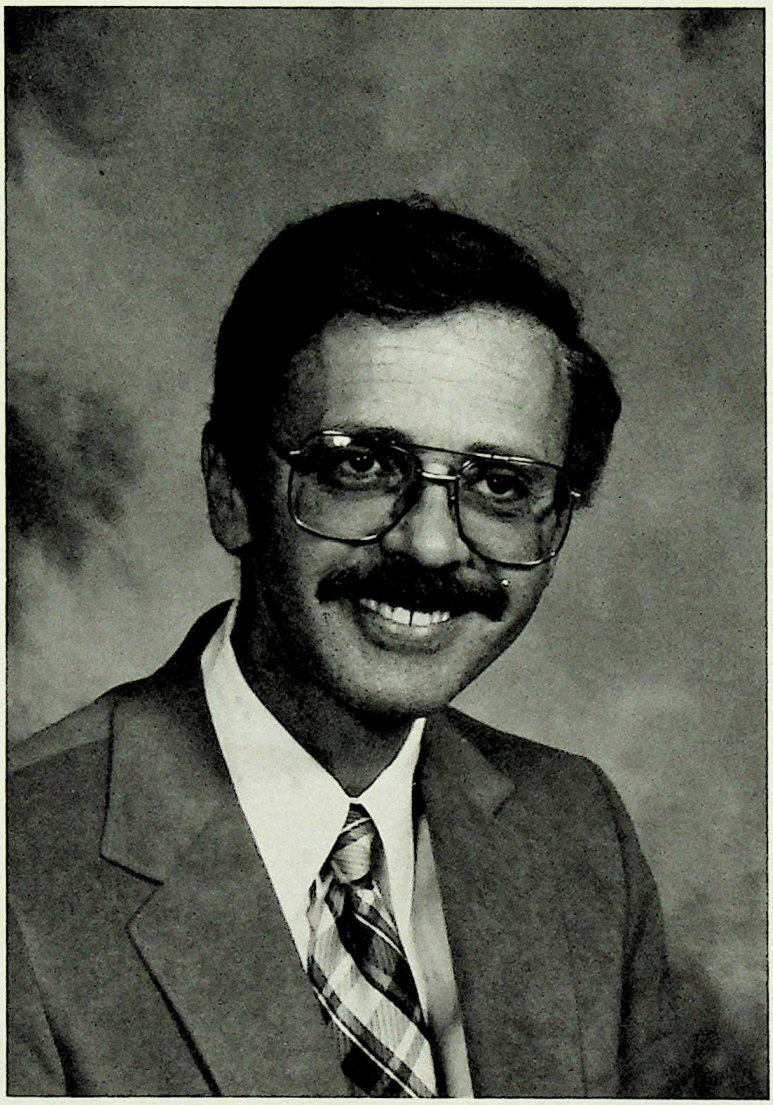
In Memoriam



MR. AL ALLNUTT

SEPTEMBER 12, 1939 - FEBRUARY 2, 1983

A HUSBAND, FATHER, TEACHER AND FRIEND OF MANY

THE LION

The lion stands strong and proud
His colors, red and gold,
The red is for his royalty
The gold for being bold.

The lion holds a brightness
Which shows that he cares,
Guiding us for three years of our life
Good and bad times that we share.

His happiness is brought to us
By the glory that he shows
The glory and the wisdom
Is given to us to hold.

The lion lost some people
Some people for whom he cared
Not all of us really knew them
But his sorrow we all share.

We have learned that love is important
And the lion has shown us why
And no matter what we say or do
It will be hard to say good-bye.

Mrs. Rogers,
Mr. Vaughan,
teachers
staff,
graduates
and families,

We are here tonight to celebrate our grade nine graduation. There have been many times when we all thought tonight would never arrive, but now that it's finally here we are not sure whether to be happy or sad.

Three years ago we entered Edith Rogers shy and uncertain what was to come. Everything was unfamiliar and big. We were constantly worried about getting to the right class at the right time. As we got to know our teachers better we began to understand that we were supposed to laugh at their jokes (right Mr. Jones and Mr. Douglas).

In our last year we watched in amusement; the grade 7's scurrying from class to class--without realizing we'll be in the same position next year.

During these years we have learned many things and met people whom we will always remember. Who will forget that person who solved a seemingly hopeless problem, who made you laugh when you were down, or who extended a part of themselves in friendship and understanding.

And now again we have reached the time when we must move on. Even though we're leaving and going our separate ways each one of us will always carry fond memories with us. These years have been a growing experience for us. We've shared things together that were so special we'll never forget them. This MOMENT is precious. Though we may forget the day, we will never forget the moment.

Kim Oksanen

STUDENT COUNCIL

Laughter is a tranquilizer with no side effects.

Fellow Students and Teachers,

It was a great honor representing the school as Student Union President this last year. Many great things were achieved: for example, second night dance and Council's purchasing of two new computers. A special thanks to the volunteer teachers, dance, publicity and concession committees for a job well done. I wish next year's Council as much success as we had with our Council this year.

Best of luck next year, and have a good summer!

Thanks to all,

Brenda Tchir
Student Union President.

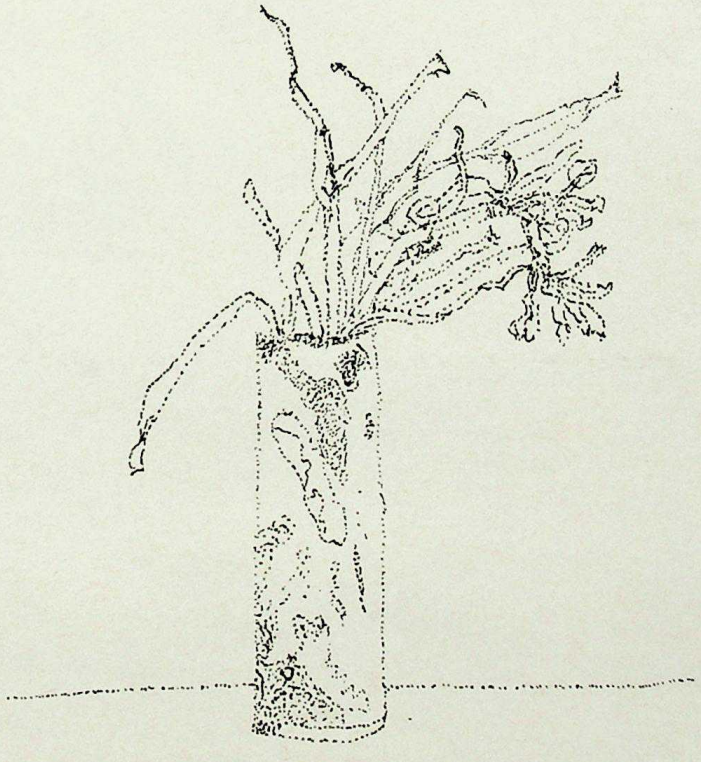
CHRIS WELSH



VINCENT HUM

Live one day at a time, and make it a masterpiece.

Poetry

The dentist called me,
I ran in and out of there.
He lost seven teeth.

- Nirmal Singh

The blue summer sky
Had evening whispers in it.
It was romantic.

- Yvonne Finlayson

The Beginning

First there was nothing,
Then there was a brilliant light,
And then life began.

The Ending

First there was a cry,
Then the brilliant light was gone,
And then there was nothing.

- Brian Thomas

The free graceful eagle
Floats freely through the clear sky
Searching for his prey.

- Doug Axani

The hawk was stalking
His prey was loose, running wild,
The hawk was alert.

- Kathy Stacey

"Give it a kick, Mike."
"There it goes, you're on your own."
"Yee ha! This is fun."

- Mike Hubert

The hot shining sun
Shines on the blue feathered birds
Then sets in the west.

- Vincent Hum

The cars whistle by
And they leave filth in the sky.
The filth does not die.

- Corey Hastman

The night was silent,
Then there was a piercing shriek
A youngster was born.

- Bob MacDuff

A cat warm and soft
Sleeps in silence until dawn
And then gives a yawn.

- Lori Sieker

Homework is a bore,
School work, homework piling up,
I won't finish it all.

- Randy Barnes

The pilots lined up
They got into their aircraft
Death was in the air.

- Marc Oleskiw

Summer is joyful,
Children running about laughing,
The rain ruins it.

- Camille Chand

Don't walk in front of me,
I may not follow
Don't walk behind me,
I may not lead:
Just walk beside me and
be my friend.

Chance cannot change my love nor time impair for love is more than a feeling love is a decision, a commitment to care forever.

Autographs

It seems that certain folks we meet
Are thought of for awhile
While others are remembered
For a special deed or smile
But those who stay within our hearts
Are very very few
And that is just the kind of friend
That I have found in you.
